Moscow State Radio Symphony Orchestra ∞∞ Friday, Feb. 12, 2010, 8:00 pm

Founded in 1978, the Moscow State Radio Orchestra was created to fill a need for the broadcast of performances of 18th, 19th and 20th century symphonic repertoire throughout Russia. Moscow State will celebrate the works of the great Russian composer, Pytor Ilyich Tchaikovsky, including the much loved Violin Concerto in D Major, Op. 35, Piano Concerto No. 1, in B flat minor, Op., 23, and the "Overture" from Romeo and Juliet.

London Philharmonic Orchestra ∞∞ Thursday, March 4, 2010, 7:30 pm

Celebrated for its versatility, artistic excellence and thrilling performances, The London Philharmonic Orchestra has earned its place among the world's most respected orchestras. Since its first performance in the Queen's Hall in 1932 brought an ecstatic audience to its feet, this renowned ensemble has performed trail-blazing international tours and produced award-winning recordings with the worlds leading conductors. Under the baton of Maestro Jurowski, this promises to be a night to remember!

Academy of St. Martin in the Fields ∞∞ Saturday, April 17, 8:00 pm

Formed by a group of leading London musicians and working without a conductor, the Academy gave its first performance in its namesake church on November 13, 1959. World-renowned for more than 500 recordings and impressive international tours, the Academy recently celebrated its 50th anniversary, establishing it as one of the world's leading chamber orchestras. According to The Times (London), "As you travel around the globe, the Academy's name has an aura possessed by no other British orchestra."

- We will try to arrange carpools from Williamsburg, if that is not possible there will be a designated meeting spot at the Ferguson Center.
- Students below the 6th grade must be accompanied by a parent or adult guardian.
